5. Council Business

a. JSD Policy AA446

- i. Valerie expressed a concern about the amount of candy given to students.
- ii. Ms. Myler will remind teachers of the policy and encourage them to give prizes and not treats.
- iii. SCC said they are willing to support teachers by purchasing prizes.

b. Emergency Drills at the school

- i. Valerie asked about school procedures for an emergency. The council suggested adding the school phone and using the walkie-talkie to the emergency procedures.
- ii. Mrs. Stovall will ask the district about the training that substitutes receive about emergency procedures.
- iii. Kira expressed concerns about the 6 openings that lead to our playground and the need for gates. Ms. Myler said that the district is aware of this concern.

c. Screen time use in classrooms

- i. Kira expressed a concern about the amount of screen time that students are getting throughout the school day. Mrs. Myler said that this has been decreased this year by the new implementation of Wit & Wisdom and Open Up. These curriculums are discussion based and not on the computer. She also let the council know that the school has only purchased two computer programs for teachers this year.

d. Updates on HB61?

- i. The district is figuring out how to follow HB61. We will let the council know when we have more information.

e. Back to School Night

- i. Valerie shared a desire to have Back to School Night be the Monday before school starts instead of the night before. Mrs. Myler said that she will propose this to the staff and send a survey.
